Marsh Wortham's Unrivaled Energy Practice

Global Energy Reach

Marsh Wortham's Energy Practice is at the forefront of advising energy companies on risk and insurance issues impacting operational success. This practice is organized around the four main energy industry segments – upstream, midstream, downstream, and power and utilities, we offer a deep understanding of industry issues within these segments. Operating as a single global organization, our energy experts offer market leading global risk solutions while remaining close to our clients' operations. We are ranked as number 1 or 2 in terms of premium volume, with most of the key energy markets, affording us clout in the marketplace unlike any other broker.

Built to Partner with Tailwater Funded Management Teams

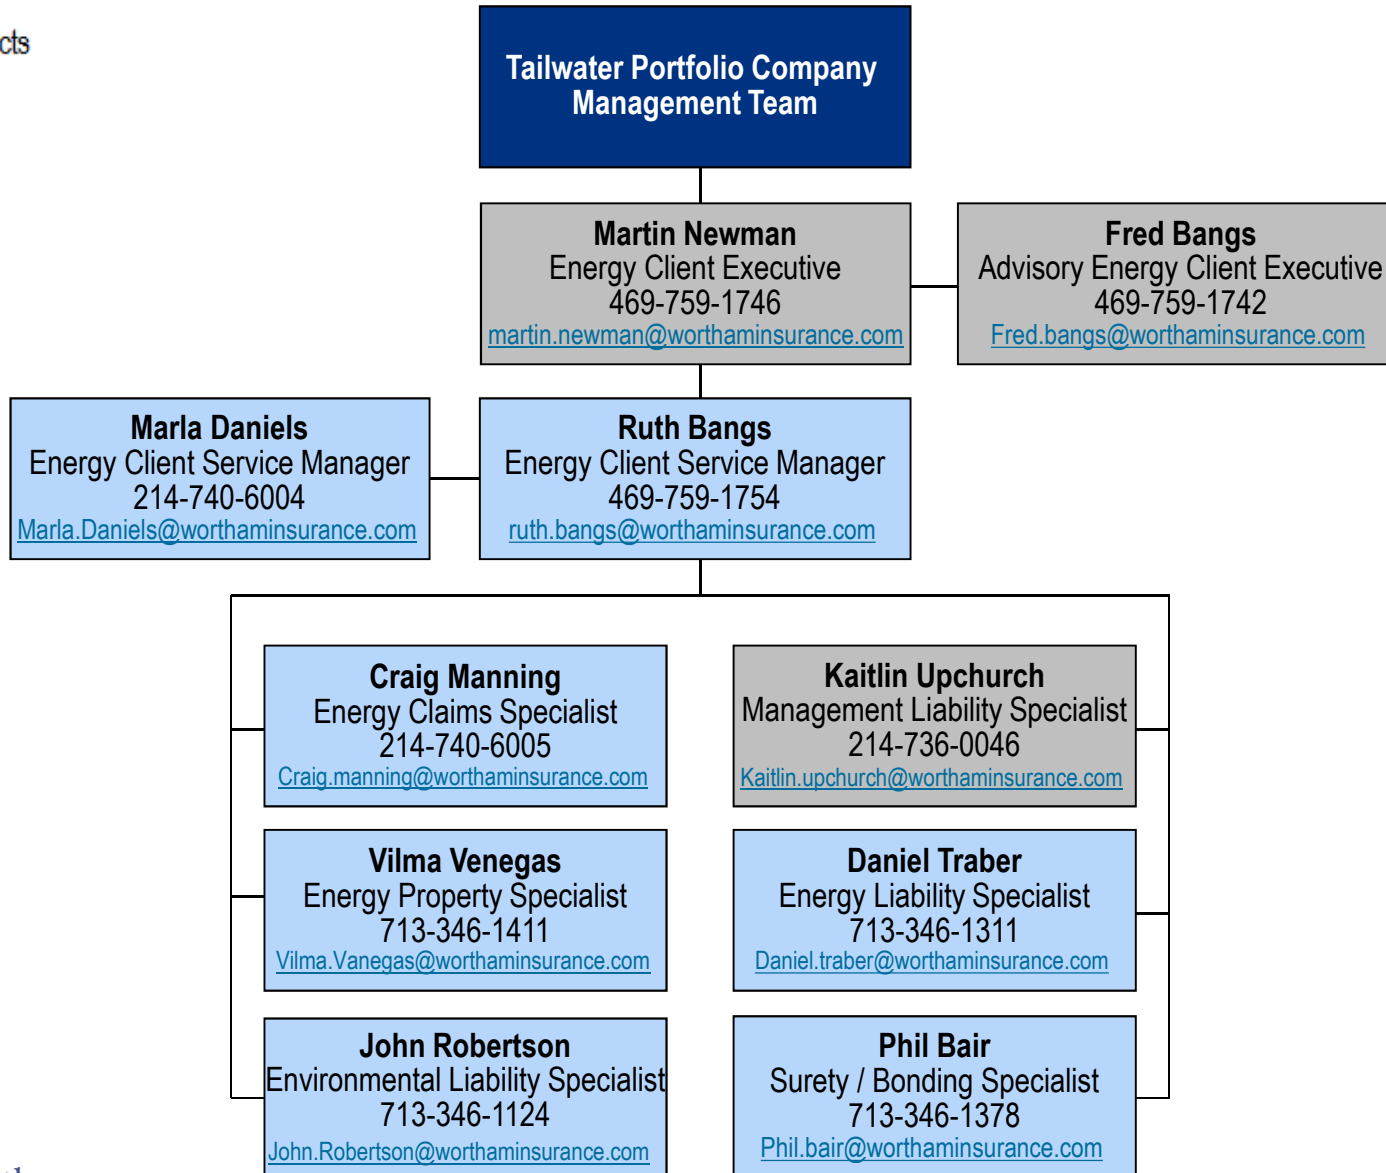

Marsh Wortham has significant experience assisting Private Equity funded energy companies throughout their lifecycles from early stage/pre-asset to maturity and eventual exit. Bringing together Marsh's global reach and Wortham's local touch, Marsh Wortham is able to provide unparalleled risk management resources and service to companies of every size. Additionally, Our team has worked with Tailwater to develop insurance programs, specific for its portfolio companies, that leverage the scale of the portfolio to generate highly favorable rates and terms.
